

Title: Lecture Series presented by KPMG - Does Reality Have a Genetic Basis?

Date: Oct 18, 2009 11:00 AM

URL: <http://pirsa.org/09100012>

Abstract: The ultimate construction, as a basis for fundamental theoretical physics is an imperfectly understood structure called "M-Theory" or "Superstring/M-Theory" (SSMT). In a quest to create a rigorous mathematical background for SSMT, new mathematical structures called "Adinkras" have been proposed as the appropriate objects to study. This study has led to the possibility that there exist a "DNA of Reality" which will be presented in this talk.

